

The Career Development Facilitator Career Pathway Certificate

The CDF is designed for individuals who are working in the field of career development and/or career advancement. This certificate can also serve as a step toward earning a Global Career Development Facilitator Credential which is endorsed by the National Career Development Association.

PROGRAM OUTCOMES

Upon completion of the program, students are expected to possess the skills and knowledge to assist others in identifying and exploring career options, researching occupational information, making career decisions, implementing action plans, and conducting effective job searches.

CAREERS

Career development facilitator training can enhance the skills of many careers including human service providers, educators, training and development specialists, and human resource professionals. Career development facilitators may serve as school-to-work coordinators, work force development personnel, case managers, job search and career workshop facilitators, career coaches, intake interviewers, career resource specialists, and employment/placement specialists.

These are 2 credit hybrids. One day per class on campus and the rest online.
